OTTAWA SPRINGTIME
MAY 23rd – 27th, 2023

Ottawa, Canada's Capital, a grand city full of history, enchanting gardens and remarkable architecture, and even shopping.

Tour Level – moderate to active depending on the sites you want to visit within walking distance, when not touring on the bus

Tuesday, May 23rd – Today we leave Sault Ste Marie, Walmart North parking lot for travel to Pembroke, with the usual stops along the way. We will overnight and have dinner on your own.
Meals: not included

Wednesday, May 24th – After breakfast we will leave Pembroke to begin our adventure on route to the Capital of Ottawa. We will travel to the picturesque, historical, former mill town of Almonte for some shopping, exploring, and lunch on your own. We then move forward to the Ottawa Marriott Downtown Hotel, where we will stay for the next 3 nights. We will help with choices for dining this evening on your own.
Meals: Breakfast

Thursday, May 25th – After breakfast we will begin our exploration of the city with our local Guide to view architecture, historical sites and a park to see the springtime flowers. We will end up at the Byward Market to explore and choose a lunch location on your own. After lunch we will visit the Canadian Museum of History in the afternoon. We will pass through the Jacques Cartier Park, before dinner at the Casa Grecque Gatineau.
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Friday, May 26th – a day at leisure with additional ideas as well from the Tour director with the bus. We have included a visit and tour of the House of Commons at the Parliament Buildings or just to walk to see the centennial flame, or take a tour that caters to your interests, to visit other museums, to the casino, or walk to the shopping centers and restaurants in the area. We will gather in the evening for another included dinner.
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Saturday May 27th – After breakfast we will have an early start and head home directly from Ottawa to Sault Ste Marie with breaks along the way.
