We make the journey to enjoy the musical dinner show, “Young Americans”, exciting while staying in a relaxing place, and enjoying the hospitality at the Stafford’s Crooked Lodge.

Tuesday July 22nd – We will depart Walmart at 8:00 am and make our way to Mackinaw City. We will take in breath taking views of the bridge from the Old Mackinaw Point Light House. We follow that with the Mackinaw Bridge Museum self-guided visit in the middle of Mackinaw Crossings for shopping & Lunch on your own. While in the area, we will include the antics of the Jack Pine Lumberjack Show. Then we make our way to the Crooked River Lodge, nestled in Alanson for our 2-night countryside stay. This evening, we enjoy a flavourful barbeque dinner served at the resort. Then socialize with your group of companions or enjoy a quiet evening on your own.

Meals included: Dinner

Wednesday July 23rd – We will have a leisurely morning before we offer an optional excursion to Petosky for lunch for shopping in the Gas Light District or a visit to the Odawa casino for lunch. We will wrap up our visit to Petosky with a visit to Kilwins Chocolate Kitchen, if you choose to get an afternoon treat. You also have the choice for the afternoon to stay back at the Crooked River Lodge and enjoy the picturesque hotel amenities. In the evening, we travel to Harbour Springs to enjoy the talented servers who perform during our “Young Americans” dinner show.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Thursday July 24th – We make our way home today after a light lunch at the Lodge and a visit to the Crooked Vine Vineyard for a wine tasting & tour. We expect to be home in the early evening after a visit to the U.S.A duty free as our last stop.
